INVESTIGATION .- Mayor Kemper this moraing investigated certain charges of judeoess and improper comduct, preferred by Auditor Breckett against Mr. John U Smith, j., act-ing janitor of the market building. It appeared that the trouble originally grew out of a disagreement tetween the Auditor and Mr. Smith as to the latter's pay, Mr. Smith c'aiming a special contract with the Mayor, and the Auditor declining to pay more than the sum fixed by the Salary bill. Some words ensued, during which Mr. Smith accused the Auditor of irregularities in his accounts, and preduced two slips of paper, bearing extracts from the latter's check book. The Auditor then accused Mr. Smith of obtaining the extracts surrepti tiously and of tampering with his books.

In the examination this morning the Audi tor explained that the marks supposed to indi este semething wrong in the books were merely the private check marks between bimself and the Treasurer is making their monthly settlements. After hearing the evidence of Auditor Brockett, Treasurer Harlow, Superintendent Chifford, and Messrs, Hugh Latham and J. J. Doherty, and the statement of Mr. Smith, the Mayor decided to remove the latter from office. The Mayor has appointed V. M. Taylor, to all the vacancy.

THE CITY DEBT .- A meeting of gentlemen representing a large amount of the Corpora-Back, to day, in reference to an adjustment of the city debt, with John W. Burke in the chair and E. S. Leadbeater, Secretary.

I: was agreed to submit a proposition to Council, that the city should issue a new bond torun for thirty years, bearing interest at the rate of three per cent for six years, and 3 65 per cent for twenty years. For the accorned interest, certificates are to be issued payable in six years, bearing five per cent interest, and oue tixth of each certificate with the interest to be paid each year.

Messrs, C. F. Lee, E. S. Leadbeater and B. Wheat were appointed a committee to prepare and present such a proposition to Council at its pext meeting.

A statement drawn up by the Commissioner of Revenue was read, showing that under the some few instances it lower prices were acceptreduced assessment, now nearly completed,

The roll of the company was then called and all members, not found fully equipped, were drapped from the active list.

A committee, composed of the 1st Vice President, Foreman and Secretary was appointed to revise the constitution and have the same printed.

A communication from the Liberty Steam Fire Engine Company, of Allentown, Pa., to Chaif Eorigeer Leadbeater, relative to a propeard visit of that company to this city in the el, was read, and the chairman was appointed to act with the Chie! Eugineer, and the presidents of the other two companies, in taking such action as may be necessary. It was also ordered that the use of the Hydraulion Eprine House be tendered to the Chief Engineer for the purpose of storeing the apparatus of the visitors. The meeting then adjourned.

CANAL NEWS. - The following items of canal ness are from the Cumberland Times :

"To day the entire length of the canal will be open for passage to loaded boats. The loaded bosts that left here on Saturday were jocked down from this level last night. Empty boats came in very lively sesterday; more are expicted to day. "A beatman who arrived yesterday, spoke in the kighest terms of the present condition of the canel. There was a special improvement in the tying up places. Day and night boats have sometimes been put to inconvenience because the day beats have kept too far away from the back at night. Nineteen boats carrying 2,053 tons of coal left this port on Monday.' IVY HILL CEMETERY. - A special meeting of the stockholders of the Loy Hill Cemetery Company was held at the office of the W. & O. R. R. Co. to day. A majority of the steek-holders being present Lewis McKerzio was called to the chair and C. F. Lee appointed secretary.
